Lowering your systolic by 20 mmHg and lowering your diastolic blood pressure by 10 mmHg may decrease your risk of stroke and ischemic heart disease by about 50%.

The American Heart Association recommends a daily limit of 1500 mg of sodium.